ADVICE TO AN EDITOR.—One of the new proprietors of the Humboldt Register has received the following from a San Francisco friend:

"I am rather sorry to see that you have assumed the thankless task of an editor. If you do your duty, you may expect a flogging about once a month; if you don't, you will deserve it. Somebody's big brother will call upon you severely for an explanation of what you intimated about his sister; and the county officials will combine and get you challenged for revealing their rascality. If you fight you are sure to be killed; and if you don't they will post you as a coward and get some old hog to whip you on the plaza. If you say anything about politics, your enemies will of course call you a liar, and your friends a fool. The first will condemn your honesty, and the last your indiscretion. An editor is a poor devil, stuck up for all classes of the community to hoot and foot at. If he gets mad and foams, they vote his paper a sarcastic cesspool of vituperative blackguardism. If he feels funny and smiles, nobody can see his wit but his wife, and all the prudes of the town will christen his sheet loose and licentious. Honesty makes everybody else your enemy, and dishonesty begets reproach. One leads inevitably to murder, and the other to suicide. In ancient times, Juvenal tells us, that when the gods entirely deserted a man, they made him a schoolmaster. In ours, they turn him into an editor. Of all classes in the community, he is the worst clothed, fed, and lodged; he is the poorest paid for his labor, waits longer for it, and then never fails to get greenbacks. You can tell him a quarter of a mile up the street by his gait, shape, and costume; he shambles along like a romantic baboon before he is trained to become a biped; he gets round-shouldered before his time, and cross-eyed from the habit of guarding against attack in ambuscade; his clothing don't fit him, because he bought them of an Jew round the corner at second-hand; he never gets aught to eat except dirt, nor to drink except vinegar; he lives the life of a hog, dies like a ——. If you are fully prepared for such a fate, go ahead; if not, sell out, swap out, or get out, as soon as possible."

THE CHINESE.—In San Francisco the Chinese question has assumed a formidable shape. The Bulletin of the 11th inst. contains the following:

The opponents of Chinese labor met in the Seventh, Ninth and Eleventh Wards last Saturday evening, and organized Clubs as follows:

Seventh Ward—Officers: President, David Supple; Vice President, John Giblin; Secretary, Thomas Fay; Treasurer, Dennis Gehrt; Sergeant-at-Arms, Thomas Sullivan.

James McElroy, John J. Cully, Henry Hixon, Patrick Murphy and Robert Anderson were appointed an Investigating Committee to ascertain the names of such citizens residing in the Ward as employ Chinamen.

Messrs. Cleary, Mooney, Cully, Supple and Riley were appointed delegates to the Convention of Workingmen, called by Industrial League, No. 2, and which meets in this city some time this month.

After considerable discussion as to whether the Eight Hour Law should be embraced in their platform, the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

Ninth Ward—Officers: President, John C. Conoly; Vice President, S. B. Thompson; Secretary, Thomas Callaghan; Treasurer, G. W. Crawley; Sergeant-at-Arms, Thomas Hennan.

Eleventh Ward—Michael Fennell presided; W. M. Johnson was appointed Secretary, and John Lotwright, Treasurer pro tem. Speeches were made by J. J. Ayers and others. A committee of four was appointed on permanent organization, to report at the next meeting, to be held to-morrow evening.

THE DRESS IN THE BLACK CROOK.—A New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Judge gives the following account of the dress of the "ladies" in the celebrated play of the Black Crook, which has had such a famous run in New York. He says:

The ballet troupe consists of better looking young ladies than the ordinary run of such troupes, and it is astonishing to see to what a degree of perfection they have reduced the practice of economy in dress. If Mrs. Eve could find herself in Niblo's, I think that she would feel perfectly at home, and Adam would not think of blushing at all on account of his scantily supplied wardrobe. I don't know exactly how to describe the costume, but it reminds me very much of pictures that I used to see in Mitchell's geography when I was at school, of "native Hottentots." It is a mighty convenient costume for dancing. You can't tread on her skirts to save your life, and there is no danger of being tripped up by crinoline as you go round in the German. No collars or cuffs to be mashed; no sleeves to be ripped; in short, it is so close to nothing that you are a long time finding out the difference; and if you don't like my description, just come on, buy two tickets, and I will carry you to see it.

MORMONISM IN IOWA.—In the Burlington Hawk Eye we see that Elder Smith estimates the number of Latter-day Saints in Iowa at 20,000. He repudiates the doctrine and polygamy of Brigham Young. He claims the Book of Mormon not as a substitute for the Bible, but as a sacred record which elucidates the Bible and agrees with it entirely. The Book of Mormon pretends to be a compilation of the record of Nephi, one of the sons of Lehi, who settled in America before Columbus discovered it in 1492. Lehi was a descendant of the tribe of Ephraim, who was the son of Joseph, who was the son of Jacob. The Book of Mormon is claimed to be a record of the Nephites and Lamanites, descendants of the House of Israel in America. They claim that this official document was written on brass plates and hid by the last prophet of the Nephites, named Morini, in a hill called Cumorah, in the western part of New York State. Joseph Smith said he found them there in a stone box, being directed thereto by an angel, who enabled him to translate the superscriptions, whereupon the angel so gathered them up, and they are now in his inventus, which meaneth much concealed.

SOME SHOOTING.—Yesterday, O. P. P. Barrlenbach and H. C. Brown, in their boat, were hunting along the Galveston shore like Paddy's match, shot 65 snipe.—Galveston News, March 13th.

John Chinaman.

A few weeks since a mob of four or five hundred laboring men gathered in San Francisco and brutally assailed all the Chinamen they could find, maltreating them and burning down their shanties. The alleged reason for all this was a complaint on the part of the mobbers, that the Chinamen were invading their rights and interfering with their interests by working for less wages than white men could afford to do. The newspaper press of the State has very generally commented on, and, without exception, has reprobated and freely denounced the lawless proceedings of the mobocrats. The Courts have taken the matter in hand and sentenced a number of those engaged in the mob to fine and imprisonment. But the matter is not to be allowed to stop there. The opponents of the Chinese have held quite a large meeting to take into consideration the question of the protection of white labor against Chinamen. Politicians, whose occupation would otherwise be gone, appeared on the scene to take advantage of the excitement of the hour, and arouse the old prejudice based on color. Men who never did a day's work of manual, and very little of any other kind of labor, grew hoarse over the "rights of laboring men," and did all in their power to inflame their hearers against the poor, miserable, unprotected Chinese. Under their influence and dictation the meeting resolved that they would patronize no man, merchant, lawyer, doctor or grocer, who employed or counseled the employment of Chinese laborers. All of which is simply pitiful, and, if effective, outrageous.

As this Chinese question, under the manipulation of the politicians, is likely to cut some figure in the political world of California, nearly all the papers of that State have spoken out on it. Among all our exchanges we find but one or two which have not condemned the whole Anti-Chinese movement, as unwise, unjust and proscriptive. Facts and figures are presented that prove that the employment of Chinamen, in the menial walks of life, not only does not restrict the field of white labor, but largely increases it. Manufactories, which without cheap Chinese labor would be compelled to close, and with it are enabled to continue, give employ to hundreds of white men who would otherwise have to look elsewhere for employment. Cheap Chinese labor fills a void which but for it would still remain a void. It is a benefit not only to the country, but, paradoxical as it may seem, to the very class of men who seek to drive the Chinese from the State.

But the California journals take a higher view of the subject than that involved in the mere economical question of dollars and cents. They assume that all men in this free land have a natural and constitutional right to labor with their hands, their intellects, and all the powers God has given them, and that any combination which seeks to restrict this right as to any class, is wrong in principle and illegal in execution. Hence, they freely denounce the proscriptive resolutions of the meeting referred to. They claim that as a natural and constitutional right the Chinese should be protected from such proscription. Class prejudice and class proscription are as mean and contemptible as they are unjust and illegal. It may be admitted, that the "Earth is the Lord's," but He has not set apart any particular place, or any particular people as entitled to the "fullness thereof," to the exclusion of others. In this the California press is almost unanimous, and we suspect the Anti-Chinese demonstration will come to grief, as must all such other combinations, based on mere class prejudice. Capital will seek, and find, and protect labor wherever it may best be freely bought. Every violent attempt to interfere with it, or intercept the current of trade, whether by combination or not, will not receive the countenance or support of any enlightened and civilized community. The stale phrase repeated so glibly by the orators at the San Francisco meeting, that "this is a white man's country," no longer carries either force, beauty, or verity. Every man who obeys the law, and respects his neighbor's rights, stands equal, in the eye of the law, with that neighbor. And the "workman is worthy of his hire," whether he be Chinaman or Celt, Christian or Jew, Saint or Gentile.

SENATOR WADE.—A GOOD ANECDOTE.—They tell a good anecdote of Senator Wade, of Ohio, since his return with the Congressional excursionists, from the South. While the party were at New Orleans, three men elbowed their way through the crowd, and inquired for Ben. Wade, and upon being introduced to the Senator, announced themselves as rebels, declaring that they had always been rebels, as they were honest in their belief of the righteousness of the lost cause. "Well, gentlemen," said the Senator, "I am happy to meet you. You are the first rebels I have seen since the war closed; the balance of the Southern people claim to be Union men. Now tell me, if you please, how you three men manage to carry on such a dreadful war against the Government, and keep it up for four long years by yourselves?" The crowd received the rebuke in silence. The three rebels did not attempt to explain how they did carry on the war.

JULES GERARD.—About two years ago the newspapers announced the death of Jules Gerard, the famous lion killer, during an exploring visit in Central Africa, but gave no account of how it occurred. The hardy explorer was murdered by his negro guides, who wishing to plunder his baggage, killed him, and threw his body into a river.

INFORMATION is wanted of John Richards, who left Salt Lake for Denver on the 18th of last December, since which time nothing has been heard of him. Address Catharine Richards, Medina, Ohio.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

New York, March 20.

The Tribune's special says the supplemental Reconstruction bill will be sent to the President to-day. It is thought he will veto it immediately, in which case Congress can pass it over his head, and be ready to adjourn on Saturday or Monday next.

The strife for the United States Marshalship of Louisiana, the most lucrative of Government offices, is narrowed down between Gen. F. J. Herron and Kirby Smith, ex-rebel. A nomination will be made in a day or two.

The presiding officers of the Senate and House of Representatives signed the supplementary Reconstruction bill to-day, and it was afterwards presented to the President.

Washington, March 20.

In the House, a resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to inquire why the claims of American citizens against the British Government, commencing with those reported by the President, January, 1859, and including all since that date, had not been paid, and report what ought to be done to secure the speedy settlement of such claims.

Julian introduced a joint resolution respecting sales of public lands and the pre-emption of homestead claims, between the cities of San Jose and San Francisco, California. Referred.

Baker offered a resolution, reciting that, in view of the greater and larger recognition of manhood that had followed the Rebellion, it was eminently fitting that the Government should be placed on better relations to the working classes, and instructing the Committee on Rules to inquire into the expediency of creating a Committee on Labor. Adopted.

Kelley introduced a bill to amend the Act of Feb. 26th, 1853, regulating the fees and costs of Clerks, Marshals, and attorneys of United States Circuit and District Courts. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Allison introduced a joint resolution providing that any object of art, imported for presentation as a gift to the United States, or any City or State Government, shall be admitted free of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Passed.

Logan introduced a joint resolution instructing the Auditor of the Treasury to audit and settle the accounts of officers, and to extend their pay in all cases where they make affidavit of their inability to make monthly returns by reason of their having been imprisoned by any casualty, or on account of any property in their possession. Passed.

Hooper, of Utah, presented the memorial of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Deseret, praying admission into the Union. Referred to the Committee on Territories.

The Colorado contested election case came up. After an hour's consideration, the resolution of the majority was adopted, referring the papers and evidence of Chillicott and Hunt to the Committee on Elections. Meantime, Chillicott to be sworn in as Delegate. Chillicott was then sworn in.

A resolution was passed authorizing the Secretary of War to pay a sum equivalent to the contract price of artificial limbs, to such disabled soldiers as may prefer it.

In the Senate, Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported the following joint resolution:

Resolved, That all persons in the Diplomatic service of the United States be prohibited from wearing any uniform or official costume not previously prescribed by Congress. Passed.

Yates, from the Committee on Territories, reported favorably on the bill for the admission of Colorado.

New York, March 20.

Tammany Hall was sold, to-day, to Charles A. Dana and others, for $170,000. Possession to be given May 1st.

The Roberts Fenian Senate is holding a session to consider the policy of extending aid to the leaders of the insurrection in Ireland. President Roberts is to deliver an address, in which he will review the whole subject, and make especial reference to the effort to convert Canada into a kingdom, and the duty of Irishmen to fight for and defend their fatherland.

The Express says the rumor of the dispatch of troops to the frontier arose from the fact that a detachment of United States troops, ordered to Oswego, left yesterday.

Louisville, Ky., March 20.

The Union Convention to-day nominated Col. Wm. A. Bullitt, of this city, for Congress.

New York, March 20.

The Post says, relative to the movement of troops to the frontier, that a part of the 4th U. S. Infantry was ordered to Omaha to participate in the summer campaign against the Indians, together with the 42d U. S. Regulars and some recruits. Nine carloads of soldiers went forward to take the place on the frontier of departing troops.

Annapolis, Md., March 20.

The bill concerning a Convention to frame a new State Constitution, passed the Maryland Senate to-day by a two-thirds vote.

New York, March 21.

A Times Knoxville special says, that East Tennessee has been damaged over two million dollars by the flood. Many lives have been lost in Lower Tennessee. Many families left houseless. The rivers are still high, and more rain falling.

Washington, March 21.

The Senate yesterday confirmed John H. Carter, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona, and Sylvanus T. Nye as Register of the Land Office at Stockton, California.

An idea prevails at the South that postal currency is not redeemable by the Government, and it is therefore being repudiated as worthless.

New York, March 21.

The Irish enthusiasm in this city has subsided. The late rebellion in Ireland is conceded to have been a disgraceful failure. The only party who receive any attention are those who favor the invasion of Canada. Several meetings have been held on the subject of an early invasion, and steps are being taken that look something like work.

The Herald's St. Albans correspondent says several U. S. army officers have passed through that village lately, although no troops had come as yet. It was rumored, however, that a force has been forwarded from Fort Warren. Several bands of Irishmen had arrived, well equipped with every requisite for a tour, and bearing traces of an undoubted tendency toward Fenianism.

The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondent says the most formidable body of horsemen known in Mexico for many years had been organized and placed under Mejia's command, and should the expected battle prove a Liberal defeat, it would most probably be turned into a disastrous rout; on the other hand, should Maximilian be defeated, the cavalry would suffice him for a desperate attempt to cut his way to the Rio Grande, whence he will take refuge in the United States.

The Herald's Southern correspondence reports that in Georgia the Military Reconstruction law is generally discussed. Although the majority consider it erroneous and unjust, they think it should be acquiesced in as a matter of necessity. In Virginia an order disbanding all military organizations has caused the disenchantment of Hamilton's colored guard, at which Hamilton and the negroes were much grieved.

Henry A. Wise has consented to stump the State in opposition to Hamilton.

The Times' special says there is good reason to believe that President Johnson will return the Supplementary Reconstruction bill, with his veto, to-day. It is understood that the President would have signed the bill had it been confined to the simple purpose of designating and defining the duties of the officer whose duty it should be to initiate the work under the Act of March 2d; but he regards the bill passed yesterday as going beyond that purpose.

It appears to be settled that the case of Governor Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, will go over to the next meeting of Congress for decision, unless the present session shall extend into the latter part of next week. The matter was before the Judicial Committee this morning, and postponed to next Saturday.

There is good authority for saying that Senator Foster, of Connecticut, will receive the nomination for Minister to Austria, vice Motley, resigned.

The House Committee on Expenditures will report a resolution asking the removal of Collector Smythe, of New York, for gross malfeasance in office. If the request is not complied with, articles of impeachment against the Collector will be presented.

INDIAN OUTRAGES SOUTH.—The San Bernardino Guardian of February 16th, has the annexed:

For several years past our citizens have been greatly annoyed by roving bands of Indians, who come into the valley and steal all the horses and cattle they find unguarded. Nor do they hesitate to attack travelers and stock-men if a good opportunity offers. Already three of our citizens—Parrish, Bemus, Whitesides, and a dozen others—have fallen victims to their bloodthirstiness within the past four years. Growing bolder by impunity, on the 26th instant they attacked a sawmill of James, upon the mountain, a few miles east of this place, having previously robbed the house of Cain of ten pairs of blankets, 700 lbs. of provisions, two guns, and carried off five horses, and then burned the house. The party at the mill, consisting of Armstrong, Richardson, Cain, and Talmadge, sallied out to meet them. A brisk fight ensued, when the party, finding that most of the Indians had guns, and fearful of being overpowered, were compelled to retreat to the mill, the horse of Cain having been shot, and he losing his gun in falling from his horse.

The next morning the party was reinforced by the addition of Carry, Law, Blair, Welty, and Lish, and proceeded to the scene of the previous day's conflict, for the purpose of recovering the gun lost by Cain, when the Indians rose up from their concealment from around the brow of the mountain and fired upon the party, wounding Welty in the shoulder and striking Cain in the leg with a spent ball. The fight soon became general, each party taking to trees. The battle raged for about an hour, when the wounded man becoming faint from loss of blood, it was deemed advisable to retire, which they did in good order, not without making two of the copper-colored rascals bite the dust and wounding three others, one mortally, it is supposed. The party immediately sent into town for reinforcements, and a company was soon made up for pursuit. They took the trail of the Indians, which led on to the Mojave desert. Not being prepared for a sustained pursuit, the party returned for provisions. These being furnished by the citizens, they obtained an addition to their numbers, and departed last week. They struck the trail on the Mojave desert, and following it up, they found the Indians strongly posted at Rabbit Springs. Not feeling strong enough for a successful fight, they dispatched a courier to town for assistance, and a party left yesterday te help win the fight. Success attend the brave boys, for they deserve it.

New York, March 14.

The Journal of Commerce says the action of the Atlantic Cable Directors, in refusing a reduction of rates, is probably based on the abandonment of the Russian line, and the supposed continued enjoyment of the monopoly. They will find they make a mistake, as a stimulus will be given for other and far more feasible projects now on foot, and hopes that both the middle line to France, and the Azores line, will be pushed rapidly forward.

A. D. Richardson, of the Tribune, was wounded last night from a pistol shot by D. McFarland, a well known lawyer, while walking with the wife of the latter, who is an actress at Winter Garden. Richardson rooms at McFarland's house. Jealousy seems to be the cause of the assault. McFarland fired three shots, one taking effect in the hip. Richardson declines to make any charge against McFarland, who has been liberated.

Cairo, March 14.

The officers of the steamer Rockford, just from the Arkansas river, reports the country overflowed, causing great loss of property and suffering of the inhabitants. Twenty-seven lives were lost at Helena by the flood, mostly freedmen.

The Nashville report says the suffering at Chattanooga and other places along the Tennessee river is appalling. At Chattanooga, on the 12th, the water was from twelve to twenty feet deep in the city, and many houses are toppling over, and others are floating away. The Mayor and a posse of citizens and soldiers were foraging among the loaded cars for food. The agents of the road protested; but the Mayor said the people were starving.

Twenty-five dead bodies were seen floating down the river at Bridgeport, Alabama, on the 12th.

The loss of property is estimated at $1,000,000.

General Carlin, at Nashville, was making efforts to send rations through to Chattanooga.

PURE SILVER TISSUE.—The following item is taken from the report of a late meeting of the California Academy of Natural Sciences, at San Francisco:

Gutzkow presented a sheet of chemically pure silver, three feet in diameter, three ounces in weight and as thin as fine paper. The color was beautifully white and the texture like fine lace. This sheet was made by mixing solutions of protosulphate of iron and sulphate of silver in a large dish, and the silver rose to the surface and there formed into a sheet. Successive sheets will rise with each stripping. This easy mode of obtaining chemically pure silver is of much practical value.

Indian Matters.

The following interesting information in relation to Indian matters, appears in the Montana Post of March 4th:

From Mr. Richards—better known a Reshaw—who is conversant with their language and has just returned from Fort Smith, we have ascertained the following facts in regard to their strength and intentions. Fort Smith, on the Big Horn river, is garrisoned by about two hundred men, commanded by Captain Kinney. About thirty-five miles from the fort are eighteen hundred lodges of Sioux, averaging three warriors to the lodge—and under the command of Red Cloud, the famous war chief of the recent massacre. Subordinate to him are the chiefs, White Young Bull and Iron Plate. These, owing to the severe weather and deep snow, have not committed any depredations, but are prepared to move as soon as the weather will permit. Around the fort a number of Crows are camped, who have so far been friendly. It is well known that a bitterly hostile feeling has existed between the Sioux and some of the other tribes. In anticipation of this summer's work, the Sioux sent to the Bloods, Peaguins and Gros-Ventres the "peace pipe," which they have accepted and joined the league against the whites. They are camped on the left bank of the Missouri, something like eight hundred lodges strong. A deputation of them to the Sioux camp state that their tribes will soon cross the Missouri river and camp near Muscleshell, from whence they will wage a war of extermination against the whites—and will never make peace until they conquer. They say the whites have now occupied their only hunting grounds. Death is inevitable, and they prefer it in battle rather than by starvation. The principal Blackfoot chief says he has lived in the mining camps for years, that he has killed numbers of whites; that they are "old squaws," and will not fight. The Arrapahoes talk for peace. "Nave," whom many of the emigrants will remember as talking English and Spanish very well, has returned from the direction of Laramie, where the troops fired on him and his band, and still manifests friendship. Lone Horn, who, with fifteen hundred Sioux warriors, made peace at Fort Sully, last summer, is in trouble. It is believed they have not warred against the whites, but have held aloof from the league.

Lone Horn said to the whites, recently, "When we made peace, last summer, the Great Father said we should be brothers, and my people have not broken their pledge. When we meet the red men they hate us because we do not fight, and when the whites see my people they fire on them and kill them. This is not right. The Great Father said whoever should fire first should die. If he does not keep the treaty, we will have to go with the other tribes and fight the whites."

In the fight at Phil. Kearny, twenty-seven hundred Indians were engaged—nine hundred did the fighting, while eighteen hundred were lying concealed near the fort, to capture it if reinforcements had been sent to Fetterman. The Sioux lost, in killed, Lone Bear and Iron Eye and six warriors. The Cheyennes had killed, Little Wolf and three warriors. About one hundred and fifty were wounded. Lying concealed on either side of a ravine, when they raised up and fired, the troops had advanced so far into the acute angle of the ambuscade that they fired past them, and many of the Indians were shot with arrows from the opposite side of the ravine. One soldier boy, about seventeen years of age, was captured; and when the brother of Lone Bear heard he was killed, he claimed the privilege and killed the captive. The commandant of Fort Smith does not expect to be able to hold his position, and it is thought if reinforcements do not soon arrive, the command will come to Clark's Fork or the Yellowstone. When the troops destined for the route arrive, posts will be established at all these points.

ACCIDENTS TO CHILDREN.—The Sacramento Bee of the 11th instant has the following:

This morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, a little son of W. H. Hoyt, living at the corner of F and Seventh streets, was accidentally drowned in the cellar of his father's house. As soon as the body was recovered, every effort was made to resuscitate him, but without avail. He was about three years of age. He fell in where the water was from two to three feet deep. Since the fatal accident to young Shirland, we have heard of several cases in the lower part of the city, where children fell in ditches and came near drowning. All these open and watery cellars should be closed, and children should not be allowed to go near the ditches.

THE MAILS.—The Denver News, of March 9th, says:

The Smoky Hill coach came in at two o'clock this afternoon with sixty sacks of mail for Denver and further west. That immense Platte mail, of which we have before spoken is on the way up, this side of North Platte, the last having left there yesterday about noon. It consists of one hundred and three sacks, of which twenty-five brass locks are for Denver. The coach from North Platte, due last night, is doubtless delayed by its heavy load. A day or two more will clear up all the back mail, but the railroads are blocked up again, and the same old trouble may be again repeated.

This Company having greatly enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,000, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,000, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin Made in Forty-Eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

850 per to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.
845 per to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.
865 per to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. [mr21-3m-ls

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer paper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most desirable medium for advertising in these four Territories.

THE CIRCUS.—We attended the circus on Monday evening, that being the opening night. It is a long time since we have patronized in that, kind of amusement, which, in more favorable days, we so oft enjoyed. It is true, many years since our inclinations have led us to seek that kind of amusement, but nevertheless, we went and enjoyed the entertainment. Much could be said of the various acts of the performers had we the space, but suffice it to say that it compared favorably with many we have seen. The entree and leaps of the performers in the acrobat line over the horizontal bar, deserve much praise, for the astonishing feats of the "Trick Mule" equals anything we have ever seen. The house was crowded, and everybody seemed to enjoy the sport. Mr. Bartholomew is truly deserving of patronage.

PREPARATION FOR SPRING.—During our rambles walks through the suburbs of the city we have observed that the owners of numerous gardens and orchards are busy preparing for the approach of spring. The labors of the gardener can be seen on the part of all who are engaged in the cultivation of fruit, flowers, and vegetables. In many of these "home patches" both sexes may be daily seen preparing the soil, to secure the earliest products for the market, or their own consumption. Industry is visible on every hand, each seem to vie with each other who shall be first to produce the choice products of their land; and it is to be hoped, that it will not be long before the benefit of their labors may be reaped by the consumer and producer.

CURRENCY CURRENCY.—We were seriously annoyed yesterday with the opinion that the circulating medium of coin, or greenbacks, is about played out. In passing the auction room of a dealer in second-hand goods, we heard him distinctly offer to take bids for articles to be sold and receive pay in cord wood, (not wooden pumpkins,) grain, hay, or any of the articles formerly constituted "legal tenders" We were more forcibly reminded of these things in Utah by this incident than all the complaint of dull times has enabled us to do.

GEN. WOODRUFF.—This veteran of the press recently in New York. His reputation, what is termed a "horse man," was as extensive as that of any of the professors in England, as well as in America, he was well known. He has had more or less to do with the best racing stock of America. His judgment was always sought for by the "fancy" and "bettors" on horse racing. As a judge he was considered par excellent, and was always in all races, in which he participated was the foundation of his popularity, and the basis of the confidence reposed in him by the racing men of the country.

EXCITEMENT.—Quite an excitement was created on East Temple Street yesterday, by the hasty unloading, at Godbe's, of a lot of second hand furniture, etc. just starting for the river.—Colemporary.

Yesterday, the "excitement" was entirely caused by the equally sudden loading up of a lot of household furniture, etc. at Godbe's," which we suspect, will in due time reach the river. A photograph of the same would have been appropriate, and have made an interesting picture.

RETURNED.—Mr. S. DeWolfe, a well known resident of this city, returned yesterday from the North. He reports the weather as being very cold. At the time of his leaving Corinne City, there were rumors of several persons having been frozen to death in their attempts to travel to Salmon River, and that much suffering had been experienced on the route by many who, anxious to be among the first to reach the mines, had neglected to take proper precaution against the severity of the weather.

ARRIVAL.—There is a general complaint of the high rents demanded for dwelling houses in this city. With the fact staring them in the face that many are preparing to vacate their houses, landlords still adhere to the old rates. We would advise those who have no objection to have vacant buildings on their hands, to secure good tenants at rates commensurate with the times.

TELEGRAPHIC.—Our telegraphic dispatches this morning indicate the veto by the President of the Supplementary Reconstruction bill, which has been passed by both houses of Congress, by a majority that expresses the certainty of a sufficient majority to pass the bill over the veto.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.—The late news from Washington is conclusive that on the final adjournment of Congress on the Reconstruction bill, they will not make a recess. The time for recess has not yet been decided upon.

THE WEATHER.—The weather yet remains unsettled with all the propensities of a veritable coquette, is fickle and capricious, changing every hour, and is as uncertain as a weathercock.

THE OCCIDENTAL RESTAURANT has reduced the price of board to $10 a week, in advance.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE AS IT WAS.—In the January number of the Land we clip the following: A friend once called the writer of this an incident which occurred in the United States Senate, when the statesmen in that then dignified body. Mr. Calhoun was making one of his able, compact, logical arguments, when discovered by the Speaker's eye, that he was not understood. Seeing the same look of perplexity on the countenance of other Senators, he turned and addressed himself to Mr. ——. An answering gleam of intelligence lit up the face of the great "expounder" and that he was followed. He would proceed, until a nod from Mr. Webster, when that all was comprehended. This commanding continued for nearly an hour, when these mighty minds, no one fully comprehending the subject under discussion, left a strange and impressive scene like it may ever be witnessed in the same location

FROM THE WEST.

[From the Reese River Reveille.]

San Francisco, March 15.

P. Girard has commenced suit in the 15th District Court against P. Frontier, to recover $5,000 damages, for an alleged malicious prosecution and false imprisonment, growing out of a charge made by defendant against plaintiff, of obtaining money by false pretences.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has established in this city a commercial agency, for the purpose of furnishing daily, to subscribers, a full report of the eastern markets, marine news, etc. Thomas M. Cash has been appointed the agent in charge of the business, and he will in a day or two announce its character clearly, in order that our merchants and business men generally may fully understand the benefit to be derived from the new arrangement.

The suit of McCall against Gen. McDowell and Captain Douglas of the U. S. army, is on trial before Judge Deady. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover $100,000 damages for alleged false imprisonment, growing out of his arrest in Mendocino county, for using treasonable language.

San Francisco, March 16.

Capt. Street, late of company K, 2d California cavalry, yesterday received his commission as Second Lieutenant of company B, 8th U. S. cavalry, and was ordered to join his regiment in Oregon.

A fire occurred this morning at two o'clock on the southeast corner of Sacramento and Kearny streets. It damaged Col. Monsterey's Salle d'Armes to a considerable extent. When discovered the fire had been smouldering for some time, and had burned through the partitions and flooring, making it difficult to extinguish without using a great deal of water, and causing much loss.

The hall of the Olympic Club was last night crowded with a fashionable audience, on the occasion of the quarterly exhibition of the club. The audience were astonished at the ease and grace with which the members performed the difficult Japanese feats, zampilaerostation, the giant's swing, the Niagara leap, etc.

The steamer Golden Age arrived this morning, bringing mails and passengers that left New York on the 21st ult.

All the French war vessels but one had left Acapulco, and the Liberals were in quiet possession of the town.

Naval News.

The San Francisco Examiner of the 9th contains the following:

A number of officers of the Navy arrived from the East, by the Constitution, on Tuesday, for duty on the U. S. Ship, Saginaw. Several officers have been detached from the Suwanee and ordered home; among them are Lieut.-Commander Lewis Kempff, and Assistant Surgeon William Commons. Among those detached and ordered to the Suwanee are Lieut.-Commander Geo. D. Wood, and G. R. Hakell; Lieutenants Frank Walters and Chas. E. Clark; Past Asst. Surgeon Louis Zensen. The following from the Vanderbilt are ordered home; Lieut.-Commander Charles L. Franklin; Paymaster, J. E. Tolfee; Passed Assistant Surgeon Wm. H. Johnson. Surgeon O. D. Mack, jr., of the Saranac, has also been ordered home.

DOUBLE ATTEMPT AT MURDER.—The Beardstown Illinoisan, of February 14th, says:

The most deliberate and unmanly attempt to commit murder that it has ever fallen to our lot to record occurred last Sunday morning, at the house of Thornly, of Morgan county. The family, consisting of the father and two sons—one of whom has a wife and children, the other being a single man—were in the house, apparently quiet, the elder son sitting at the window reading, when the old man arose from his seat, deliberately drew a revolver and shot him through the back of the head. Supposing he had killed him—as he afterwards expressed himself—he went out into the back yard and aimed to shoot himself in the mouth, but failing in his aim the ball entered the lower part of the jaw, without proving fatal. The ball had been extracted from the head of the son, and at last accounts both were doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, with a probability of recovery. The sufferings of both are reported as being intense, yet they are conscious. The cause of the attempted murder is supposed to be an old feud, of which we have no knowledge of facts.

A LETTER from Judge Slough to E. Gaffney, Esq., of this city, which we have been kindly shown, announces that the design for a monument to the fallen brave, in New Mexico, has been adopted. Governor Arney, who has gone East, is authorized to procure the ornamental portions of the work, which, it is expected the Government will transport to its destination. The rougher parts will be prepared in the Territory, by its own mechanics.—Denver News.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.—In the interior of the State of New York, an incident happened the other day, which clearly exemplifies the fact that unscrupulous avariciousness is very liable to lay traps in which itself is caught. The Canal Commissioners found it necessary to draw largely from one of the Eastern lakes, and in doing so cut off the supply of several flouring mills, the owners of which subsequently filed claims against the State for damages. The owner of one of these mills prepared his papers to file with the Board of Canal Commissioners, with much care, that his claim might be clearly established by documentary proofs. Among the other papers was an affidavit as to the daily profits of the mill while it was running, and the damage consequent on its being stopped for want of water. The sum named in the affidavit as the daily profits was quite large—nearly $100. The Commissioner in charge examined the papers carefully, scanning the affidavit with close scrutiny. This done he turned to the claimant with the remark:

"This affidavit is correct, I suppose?"

"Yes," was the prompt reply. "The sum named is the daily profits of the mill you are sure is correct?" "All right, sir." "Very well, when I have compared this affidavit with your return to the Assessor of Internal Revenue, if I find it to compare with your income report I shall take pleasure in favoring the payment of your claim; but until then I can give no assurance."

This was a regular bomb-shell. The claimant turned red in the face, and was seized with a sudden series of short coughs. He would like to have the affidavit back, so that he might again compare it with his books and be quite sure it was correct. The Commissioner shook his head. Claimant fancied that there might be an inadvertent error somewhere. Commissioner thought not. Claimaint nervously desperate. Commissioner calmly inexorable. And so the situation had to stand. The result has not transpired yet, but the impression seems to be that there is a discrepancy somewhere between the affidavit supporting the mill owner's claim and the affidavit verifiying his revenue returns.

A CAT GOING TO PRESS.—An incident occurred lately in connection with the printing of the North British Mail, published in Glasgow, Scotland, which is unparalleled in the annals of the press. A cat had ensconced herself in the large cylinder of the four-feeder Hoe printing machine employed to throw off the first side of the impression. Before starting a machine of this sort, there is a considerable noise and bustle in putting on the "turtles" of type, and during the first few revolutions it is driven very slowly. The cat, however, remained quite quiet during these preliminaries, and escaped notice until the machine was running at full speed, and had thrown off some eight hundred copies of the paper. She then apparently thought she had had enough of it, and attempted to spring out of the cylinder, but being giddy after her 200 full-speed revolutions, fell underneath it, and was crushed to a jelly by the revolving forms, her head making a large dent in one of the columns, and her flesh, blood, and bones being so evenly distributed over the type, that it was only after a great deal of washing that printing could be resumed. So completely triturated was the unfortunate animal that, as one of the hands expressed it, "nothing was left of her but her skin."

THE charter election in the city of Sacramento yesterday passed off smoothly and quietly under the beneficent operation of the Registry Law. The registered vote of the city is 2,100. The total vote polled yessterday was 1,718. The regular Union ticket carried every ward—the opposition, workingmen's, anti-Chinese, Democratic suffering generally from the stringency of the Hawes statute. David Kendall, Union candidate for Trustee, received 386 majority over Herndon, who ran ahead of his ticket. John McClintock, Union candidate for Auditor, received 883 majority; D. A. DeMerritt, Union candidate for Collector, 840 majority; and E. R. Hamilton, Union candidate for Assesser, 824 majority. The question of imposing a special tax for drainage purposes was decided in the negative by 358 majority.

STABBING.—The Owyhee Bulletin of the 14th says:

One of our worthy townsmen a few nights since, made a narrow escape. A notorious libertine came to his house in search of a person, whom she supposed had stolen (as she said) her money. Being slightly inebriated, she was of course boisterous. Upon being requested to leave the premises, she stubbornly refused, and when gentle physical means were employed to eject her, used her knife upon the person of our friend, inflicting a slight flesh wound. Such characters ought to be looked after.

CHILBLAINS.—The following discovery, by Dr. William H. Weston, of Somerville (Mass.), was never known to fail as a cure for chilblains: Laudanum, one part; liquid acetate of lead, two parts. Obtain a small bottle full at any apothecary's.

SIGN OF THE GILT ANCHOR!

DENVER, COLORADO,

Is not the 'Largest,' but the MOST ELEGANT CLOTHING HOUSE in Colorado.

And from the East and to the West,
Are gentlemen dressed
In suits from Anker's Hall;
And none, as yet, was heard to regret,
That he ever gave him a call.
He honestly deals,
And nothing conceals.
Regarding the wear of his clothes.
But speaks with the truth,
To man and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows.
Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Walk boldly—don't cowardly creep.
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.

The citizens of Utah, Idaho and Montana are at all times cordially invited to call at ANCHOR'S POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE, when in Denver, and examine his most Elegant and Tasteful Stock of Goods, which will be sold at Prices Guaranteed Lower than the Lowest.
